To Whom It May Concern

I am the convener of the 2WALKandCYCLE conference series and have worked with Glenda Hardings for all our conferences.

This year the conference in Palmerston North was well organised by Harding Consultants and I would recommend Glenda and her company to anyone in the same business.

Glenda is a pleasure to work with and has vast experience in this area. She makes our conferences places that people enjoy and want to be at.

One comment this year was 'its great to see so many people from so many different professional backgrounds becoming one family for the 3 day conference'.

Yours sincerely
