

If you want your event to be memorable; to run as smooth as a pane of glass; to impress your delegates with a warm, welcoming environment conducive to networking and supporting your sponsors, then you must engage Harding Consultants.

Let me explain. I'm a busy conference speaker, and have been for the past 14 years. I have seen hundreds of conference setups, and the same hotel facilities configured in many different ways. I have spoken at the Rendezvous Hotel in Auckland countless times (and in fact two days after the TRAFINZ conference that Harding Consultants managed) yet never have I been so impressed or seen the Rendezvous, or other venues transformed the way Glenda and her team handled it.

I was blown away by the warm welcoming environment created. The attention to detail. For example a quiet corner that's always dead space was made into a lovely, homey networking area with couches – fitted out with throw blankets and pillows. The tables set up for networking close to the exhibitors stands had a bowl of tulips (in the conference colours I might add). The bowls of tulips and a wee conference stand-up logo was even in the ladies rest room. A superior conference compendium. All these touches – stunning and not expensive. Simply clever.
